Veronica Cheng – a Canvas of Hard Work and Dedication

PITTSBURGH, PA – Through November 18th, 2011, Riverset Credit Union is honoring nine area high school Juniors and Seniors with a Riverset Star Student award. Those nominated who meet the designated criteria will be entered into a random weekly drawing for an award of $250, a Star Student plaque, and a special presentation. This program was developed in conjunction with executives at Pittsburgh's KDKA/The CW and coverage will be featured on those respective stations.

Our latest award winner is Veronica Cheng, a senior at Pittsburgh CAPA High School. An accomplished artist, Veronica maintains a 3.93 GPA and is enrolled in two college-level courses. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Yearbook (editor-in-chief), Environmental Club and Fashion Club. She also volunteers her time teaching refugees English, as the donation organizer for Women's Choice crisis pregnancy center and is co-curator for her school's Summer Art Series – just to name a few.

Veronica was nominated by her instructor, Mr. Brendan Coyne. She was presented the award and check in front of her entire class. To learn more about Veronica and her accomplishments, view Riverset's Blog.

Riverset Credit Union is a full service financial institution with assets valued at $124 million as of June 30, 2011. Membership in Riverset is open to individuals who live, work or worship in Allegheny, Beaver and Butler Counties. To learn more, visit riverset.com.
